PLAINTIFF UNITED STATES OF AMERICA’S CONSENT MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO RESPOND TO COURT ORDER

On March 5, 2025, this Court issued an order noting the change in Administration and requiring the United States to file a brief by March 26, 2025, “addressing any changes to the positions set forth in its Motion for Summary Judgment, including whether it intends to continue pursuing its claims in this matter.” ECF No. 143. The United States subsequently obtained an extension of the deadline to April 9, 2025, because the United States needed more time to consider the best approach to this litigation. See Minute Order (March 25, 2025).

The United States is now actively engaged in discussions with counsel for the State of Texas and Governor Greg Abbott in an attempt to resolve the parties' dispute without further litigation. They need more time to allow the discussions to conclude. Accordingly, the United States respectfully request an additional three-week extension from April 9, 2025, to April 30, 2025, to respond to the Court's Order.

Undersigned counsel have conferred with counsel for the State of Texas and Governor Greg Abbott, and they indicate that they consent to the relief requested in this motion.

DATED: April 8, 2025

Respectfully submitted,

Yaakov Roth
Acting Assistant Attorney General
